

- Work with a partner. You have three minutes to complete the sentences.
Don't run out of time!

- I only see my half-brother _____ time _____ time.
- We can cut across the park to _____ time.
- Sorry, I can't help you now. I'm a bit _____ time.
- Now that she's retired she's got a lot of time _____ her hands.
- I can't remember much about my school days, as it was such a _____ time _____.
- My girlfriend's never _____ time. She's the least punctual person I know.
- The actual wedding ceremony had finished _____ the time we got there.
- I need to take some time _____ work to recover.
- My niece was born in the nineties so The Beatles were _____ her time.
- Our honeymoon was fantastic! We had the time of our _____.
- Generally speaking I enjoy living on my own, but _____ times I miss having someone to talk to.
- If you have any _____ time this afternoon, could you possibly help me to draft the report?
- I'm not in a hurry for an answer so you can _____ your time and think it over for a while.
- I couldn't answer the last question because I _____ of time.
- My stepfather's _____ me a _____ time because he thinks I'm going out too much.
- _____ time last year we were in the middle of moving house.
- We thought we were going to miss our connecting flight, but we made it just _____ time.
- Don't _____ your time trying to convince him. He'll never change his mind.
- They're always arguing. It's only a _____ of time before they split up.
- OK, time's _____! Stop writing now.

