4 it's possible that he's doing      5 I'm almost sure it wasn't      6 he was almost definitely there
7 perhaps he went      8 perhaps he didn't think      9 will probably be

JOY Pam, why are you crying? What's wrong?
PAM It's Derek. I think <sup>1</sup> he might be having an affair.
JOY Come on, Pam, that <sup>2</sup> _____ true. He <sup>3</sup> _____ one of the most reliable partners in the world. How can you possibly think that he <sup>4</sup> _____ something behind your back?
PAM That's what I thought. Until a friend saw him coming out of a nightclub with another woman!
JOY It <sup>5</sup> _____ him. Derek's never been a late-night person.
PAM No, Joy, it was definitely him. I found this ticket in his pocket, so he <sup>6</sup> _____ there that night.
JOY Well, he <sup>7</sup> _____ there with a group of colleagues from work. He <sup>8</sup> _____ it was important enough to tell you about it.
PAM What do you mean, not important enough?
JOY Look, don't you think it would be a good idea to talk to him about it? Everything <sup>9</sup> _____ fine once you give him a chance to explain. You'll see.

Activation

Prepare a two-minute presentation for the class about how you think life might be in 20 years' time. Try to use the grammar from a and b. Choose two or three of these topics:

- family and friends      shopping      the environment      work      entertainment the economic situation in your country      technology      transport

'First of all, I think it's very likely that 20 years from now I'll still have a small group of very close friends, although if I am married I might not see them as often as I do now. People will definitely still want to meet each other face-to-face, and I don't believe that email or talking online will ever replace that. Families are bound to become smaller in the future as nowadays people are having fewer children and I think that the tradition of large extended family is likely to disappear, etc.'
