

The Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition are having a debate on live television.

a Circle the correct answer for each gap.

A After four years in government, what have you done? Look at the state of the country: there isn't [ ] money for pensions, there's [ ] unemployment, and [ ] children are failing at school.

B Our problem is that we have had very [ ] time to repair the damage that your government did before us. [ ] people were happy with the Education system when you were in government? [ ]!

A Nonsense! You don't know what you're doing! And [ ] people in your own party are now saying that, too. You say you haven't had [ ]? I say you don't have [ ] ideas!

B We have [ ] of ideas, and they're working! [ ] years ago our economy was getting worse; not any more. We have very [ ] unemployment now, compared to when you were in government. The people of this country are [ ] intelligent to believe your ideas again.

A Really? Well, I think very [ ] of them will be convinced by your arguments.

B The problem is that your party spends [ ] time insulting the government, and not [ ] time thinking of new ideas.

C Thank you very much, gentlemen I'm afraid we have [ ] more time today...
