M	Tatch 1–10 to a–j to make complete sentences.
1	b You're nearly as tall
2	☐ The burglar was arrested	S ES
3	He's very well known
4	We'll have to use this scarf
5	I didn't go and see that film
6	As I wasn't feeling very well
7	It isn't as foggy
8	Turn the light off	FEDV
9	☐ I never read that newspaper
10	As I was coming here
a b c d e f	as it was yesterday. as me. as a bandage. as it's too biased. I met an old friend. just as he was leaving the house. as the reviews were awful.
g h i j	as a composer and conductor. I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as.
h i j	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as.	Remember:
h i j	I didn't go to work. as you go out.	Remember:
h i j Co	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey?	Remember: Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours.
h i j Co	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist.	Use like to say things are similar.
h i j Co 1 2 3 4	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist. He looks my father. They have the same mouth and nose.	Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours. He looks like a basketball player. Use as for comparisons and to describe
h i j Co 1 2 3 4 5	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist. He looks my father. They have the same mouth and nose. That sounds thunder. Do you think it's going to rain?	Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours. He looks like a basketball player. Use as for comparisons and to describe somebody's job or something's function.
h i j Co 1 2 3 4 5 6 7	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist. He looks my father. They have the same mouth and nose. That sounds thunder. Do you think it's going to rain? It's not cold today yesterday. Please don't use that glass an ashtray! Teresa is late usual.	Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours. He looks like a basketball player. Use as for comparisons and to describe h i j Co 1 2 3 4 5 6 7	I didn't go to work. as you go out. omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist. He looks my father. They have the same mouth and nose. That sounds thunder. Do you think it's going to rain? It's not cold today yesterday. Please don't use that glass an ashtray!	Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours. He looks like a basketball player. Use as for comparisons and to describe somebody's job or something's function. I'm as tall as my father.
h i j C C 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 C C 1 2 3	I didn't go to work. as you go out. Omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist. He looks my father. They have the same mouth and nose. That sounds thunder. Do you think it's going to rain? It's not cold today yesterday. Please don't use that glass an ashtray! Teresa is late usual. I'm not sure what it is, but it smells petrol. Omplete the sentences with your own ideas. As I was coming out of the cinema I met an old school friend All the shops will be shut tomorrow as It's very cloudy. It looks as if	Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours. He looks like a basketball player. Use as for comparisons and to describe somebody's job or something's function. I'm as tall as my father. He works as a waiter.
h i j C 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 C 1 2 3 4	I didn't go to work. as you go out. Omplete the sentences with like or as. This tastes like chicken, or is it turkey? My brother works a freelance journalist. He looks my father. They have the same mouth and nose. That sounds thunder. Do you think it's going to rain? It's not cold today yesterday. Please don't use that glass an ashtray! Teresa is late usual. I'm not sure what it is, but it smells petrol. Omplete the sentences with your own ideas. As I was coming out of the cinema I met an old school friend All the shops will be shut tomorrow as	Use like to say things are similar. My jacket is like yours. He looks like a basketball player. Use as for comparisons and to describe somebody's job or something's function. I'm as tall as my father. He works as a waiter.