Space oddity

Ground Control to Major Tom, Ground Control to Major Tom:
Take your protein pills and put your 1 on Ground Control to Major Tom, commencing <sup>2</sup> , <sup>3</sup> 's on
Check <sup>4</sup> , and may God's love be with you
This is Ground Control to Major Tom, you've really made the grade
And the papers want to know whose shirts you wear
Now it's time to leave the <sup>5</sup> if you dare
This is Major Tom to Ground Control, I'm stepping through the doo
And I'm <sup>6</sup> in the most peculiar way
And the <sup>7</sup> look very different today
For here am I sitting in a tin can, far above the 8
$^9$ is blue and there's nothing I can do
Though I'm past one hundred thousand miles, I'm feeling very still
And I think my 11 knows which way to go
Tell my wife I love her very much – she knows
Ground Control to Major Tom
Your <sup>12</sup> 's dead, there's something wrong
Can you hear me, Major Tom?
Can you hear me, Major Tom?
Can you hear me, Major Tom?
Can you
Here am I <sup>13</sup> round my tin can, far above the <sup>14</sup>

Song facts

David Bowie wrote this song in 1969 after seeing the Stanley Kubrick film 2001 – A Space Odyssey and it was used by the BBC during their coverage of the 1969 moon landing. Major Tom, however, is not based on a real person. In a later song, Ashes to ashes, Major Tom appears again and sends a message from space saying, 'I'm happy, hope you're happy too'.
